IS YOUR QUOTE FAIR?

A quote between $198 and $413 is inside the band where half of all Toyota Camry brake rotor replacements landed. Below it is not automatically a bargain (economy rotors on a small car); above it is not automatically gouging (large truck rotors, coated or performance rotors, pads replaced anyway once the rotors are off) — but both ends deserve a question.

WHAT MOVES THE PRICE

- Rotor size — truck and SUV rotors cost much more than compact-car ones.
- Pads at the same time — if the pads are half-worn, most shops recommend doing both to avoid paying labor twice.
- Warped vs. worn — a pulsation from warped rotors is fixed by this job; a grinding noise means pads too.

ABOUT THIS DATA · HOW TO USE THIS REPORT

Vehicle Toyota Camry, model years 1984–2024
Data confidence Good — good sample, dependable ranges
Records through July 2026, refreshed continuously
Source paid invoices from independent US repair shops

Bring it to the shop. Ask for the written estimate split into parts, labor hours and rate, and fees — then compare each line. A shop that explains a number above the range is doing its job; one that won't is telling you something too.

NOT A QUOTE This report describes what other owners paid for the same repair. Your year, engine, region and the parts chosen shift the number. FixDozer does not perform repairs and receives nothing from shops.
